

You should only send your child to school if you have been told that your child has a confirmed space.

Please stay 2 metres away from people who you do not live with at all times – even if you have to go outside.

---