

Ask the children to think about worries they might have at the moment. It is a very special and unusual time so it is absolutely normal and OK to feel like this.

Look at 'Shivery the worry' below. This is how we can feel unless we deal with it. On the tummy of the Shivery monster draw something you are worried about and write what you can do to cope with it.

