

World of stories

Big Dreamers Competition

Did you know that the first Puffin book was published in 1940? That means 2020 is Puffin's 80th birthday. To celebrate Puffin is publishing a book which will be filled with stories from illustrators, authors and ... 10 children from Puffin World of Stories schools. This is an exclusive competition open to only 50 schools nationwide. Castlecombe happens to be one of the lucky schools!

To enter the competition, entrants must complete the following sentence in under 250 words, My Big Dream is . . . .

This could be something totally magical and extraordinary, it could be something they have invented to change the world or it could be something from a book that they wish would come to life. The editors will be looking for imagination, creativity and originality.

The story must :

- Start with My Big Dream is . . . .
- Be under 250 words
- Be an original work of complete fiction
- Have only one author
- Be submitted to Mrs Lloyd by Monday 14th October

